

VISIT...

LANZAROTE
Caliente.COM

PERSUASIVE ESSAY

Tips for Stating Goals and Giving Reasons

- A goal is a position or opinion the writer believes in or believes the reader should do.

- Reasons should explain why the goal was chosen and the thinking process behind the goal.

- Reasons can include factual evidence, data, logical statements, or opinions.

- Reasons should be stated briefly along with goals at the beginning of the essay.

- The remainder of the essay should expand on each reason.

